

THE TIMES.

PUBLISHED SATURDAYS.

J. E. BURGH, JR., Editor.

30 cents per annum.

SPOUT SPRING, KY.

Saturday, July 18, 1896.

Entered in the post-office at Spout Spring, Ky. as second-class mail matter.

LOCALS.

Plenty of roasting ears on the market.

Subscribe for The Times only 30 c a year.

The blackberry crop is about gone.

Children knee pant suits 50c at Patrick's.

Commercial and Times both one year for 60c.

J. E. McKinney has returned from Clark county where he has been on business.

Protracted meeting begins at Jackson's Chapel to day. Every body invited to attend.

The election recently held in Clark county on local option is to be contested.

Go to W. R. Cassidy's, Clay City, for clothing.

Mrs. Cordelia Ballard, of Lockhane was the guest of Mrs. Thos. S. McKinney Wednesday.

Advertise in the Times and see how your trade will grow. Try it.

The school house yard has at last been fenced.

A full line of harness and plow gear at Patrick's.

The Times and Enquirer one year only 65 cents.

J. Wilmot McKinney has been below on business.

Louisville is to soon have a Democratic daily newspaper.

For stoves, hardware and queensware, go to W. R. Cassidy's.

J. W. Burgher and family, of Clark county, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Barnett Monday.

The stray mare advertised by Henry Burton in last week's paper proved to be the property of Judge Hill at Beattyville.

Alva Stephens has engaged a number of lambs in this community to be weighed up some time in next month at 3½c; some old sheep at from 2 to 2½.

Clark County Fair and trotting Association will hold its eighth annual exhibition at Winchester beginning Wednesday, July 29, and continuing four days.

The school at this place opened up Monday morning. Prof. J. W. Edwards as teacher. There was a good attendance and both patrons and pupils seem to be well pleased with the teacher.

T. S. McKinney went to Clark county on business the earlier part of the week.

DIED.

Sunday, July 12, Overton Howard in Powell county. The remains were buried Tuesday in the Hoskins graveyard.

BUSINESS LOCALS.

For pure groceries, go to J. E. Burgher's.

Use Mansfield's flour.

UP TOWN STORE for bargains.

Eat wholesome bread made of Mansfield's best flour.

Slippers at cost for cash. J. E. Burgher, Jr.

They all want it: THE TIMES.

15 lbs of dry salt meat for $1. at Paatrick's,

A full supply of bacon at J. E. Burgher's at 6½ cts. per lb. in quantities.

Pay us what you owe us. We have run business about as long as we can afford to without money. Remember we will take most any thing you have to sell on account.

THE TIMES one yr. 30c

JOB PRINTING
At this office at the
LOWEST PRICE.